Local Personalities to Play in Barn Dance Show

Mishicot — "Kross Road Kapers", a home talent stage show, will be presented Saturday and Sunday evenings, June 16 and 17, at Sportsman park, Mishicot, for the benefit of park improvement.

This big fast moving stage show is an imitation radio broadcast of a barn dance. The program starts rolling with Ned Demsien acting as Roy Rogers, master of ceremonies, assisted by his partner, Dale Evans, played by Adelaide Antholz. The comedy parts of Cousin Clem and Minnie Pearl will be personalized by Tony Sebanz and Laura Weidenhaft. The part of Gabby Hayes will also be taken by a local personality. The square dancers will be stepping off fancy patterns to the call of "The Texas Star," as fiddles supply the old time hoe downs.

All amateur talent in the community will be competing for cash prizes and ribbons. Among the talent numbers will be Doris Dvorak, Dolly Demsien, Mary Jean Theis, Donald Critton, Erwin Lambert, Sandra Demsien, Ervin Weidenhaft, Arland Kasten, Willie Vaga, Waldemar Vaga, Tommy Parraz, Paul Novachek, Donnie Schuette, Audrey Kasten, Fern, Laverne and Joyce Mueller, Rosanna Kronforst, Patsy Eis, Carol Schuler, Sharon Ullman, Karen Kaufman, Sandra Holmes, besides others.

A different show will be presented both nights at Sportsman park.
